

19/03/2019

What is CLIL?

What do you know about CLIL? Mark these statements true or false and say why.

1. The CLIL approach encourages teachers to completely change their teaching strategies. F
2. There's a four-way focus on content, learning skills, communication and culture. T
3. The teacher communicates more than the students. F → Try to reduce TTT (teacher talk time)
4. Students help set content, language and learning skills outcomes. T
5. It's important to use routine activities and discourse. T acopter
6. Students need to communicate in their second/third language at all times. F
7. Students get rewarded for being nearly right. T
8. CLIL only happens in the classroom. F
9. You need to be proficient in the second/third language to teach CLIL. F → but it helps!
The more, the easier to find, create, design materials.
10. Collaboration is central in a CLIL syllabus. T
Between all the people involved.

